A Snapshot look at local businesses

Pam Marx opened her own hair design studio in February 2005. She offers professional hair care in a relaxing atmosphere. The menu of services includes cuts, styles, perms and dimensional hair color. In September 2005, Pam became certified in Great Lengths™ hair extensions. She strives to stay current with the latest technology and trends.

There are several reasons why a client should consider hair extensions. They can add length, volume and/or color enhancement. Pam's extension clients have ranged in age from 14 to 87 years old. It is very rewarding for Pam to help clients achieve the styles they desire.

Pam apprenticed under Jo Dorsey Elliott and Dorothy Adams thirty-four years ago. She believes they provided her with a solid foundation in cosmetology and has continued to build upon this foundation through the years. Pam's parents have provided her with a good work ethic and encouragement.

Several years ago, Pam attended a class in which the instructor said "in order to grow, you must work outside of your comfort zone." With this in mind, and with the continued support of her husband Steve, Pam is constantly seeking new ways to help her clients to look better and feel better about themselves.
